Review of the RBNZ Act	High	Treasury	In November 2017 the Government announced it would undertake a review of the Reserve Bank of New Zealand Act 1989 to create a modern monetary and financial policy framework. The review is being undertaken in two phases. Phase One involved a review of monetary policy. The policy decisions can be found here. In September 2018 NZBA submitted on the Reserve Bank of New Zealand (Monetary Policy) Amendment Bill. Phase Two involves a comprehensive review of the financial policy provisions of the Act that provide the legislative basis for prudential regulation and supervision. It is also reviewing the broader governance arrangements for RBNZ, including the respective roles of the Board and Governor. In December 2017 an Independent Expert Advisory Panel was appointed by the Minister of Finance to provide input and support to the Review based on the Terms of Engagement. The Independent Expert Advisory Panel met with officials between December 2017 and March 2018 on issues related to Phase One and development of the list of issues for Phase Two.	In January NZBA submitted on the consultation Reserve Bank Act Review: Safeguarding the future of our financial system. Open Banking	High	MBIE	On 8 September 2017 MBIE published the cabinet paper – Retail payment systems: update on next steps – which formed the basis of the Minister of Commerce and Consumer Affairs’ (then, Hon Jacqui Dean) letter to industry participants setting out her expectations regarding the future directions of the payments system. The cabinet paper identifies open banking as being a key issue internationally, and considers that industry-led open banking initiatives would be likely to result in favourable competitive pressures and reduce the need for regulatory action. In March 2018, Payments NZ (PNZ) launched an API pilot involving banks, payment providers and large retailers. The pilot will provide valuable insights into the design of a shared API framework and will inform the debate around what open banking means for New Zealand. Further details about the pilot can be found here. On 26 June 2018 the Minister of Commerce and Consumer Affairs gave a speech at the Payments NZ Conference in which he encouraged the progression of the API framework (in particular, with respect to access and use by third-parties) within the next year. In September 2018 the Minister for Commerce and Consumer Affairs travelled to Sydney and Canberra to explore how open banking is being implemented in Australia. The Minister met with Scott Farrell	The industry pilot, coordinated by PNZ, has successfully concluded. The API standards for Payment Initiation and Account Information have been made available to the industry. Effort is now focussed on completing the key components of an API framework, which includes operational policies, governance structures and developing a centralised, co-ordinating service to support the ongoing management of the service. The PNZ Board is reviewing the structure of the proposed framework. Industry will be advised when the Board has completed this process.

Retail Payments Systems	Medium	MBIE	On 8 August 2017 the Minister of Commerce and Consumer Affairs (then, Hon Jacque Dean) wrote to industry participants setting out her expectations regarding the future directions of the payments system. Consistent with NZBA’s submission, an industry working group – made up of NZBA, issuers, acquirers, schemes and Payments NZ – recommended: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Greater transparency of merchant fees and education for merchants. This is being progressed on a bilateral basis, with acquirers communicating progress to MBIE. • That MasterCard and Visa provide weighted average interchange reporting on a six monthly basis for; credit/card present, credit/card not present, debit/card present, debit/card not present. That is consistent with the Minister’s request and was made available before the April deadline. Payments NZ responded to the Minister’s letter on 29 March 2018 providing an overview of progress made on the Payments Direction initiative and engagement with third parties. On 26 June 2018 the Minister of Commerce and Consumer Affairs, Hon Kris Faafoi, gave a speech at the Payments NZ Conference and set his expectations regarding debit and credit products: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He does not want to see further increases in interchange fees or merchant service fees for debit and credit cards. 	The Minister was provided with a third report in February 2019 which included the average weighted interchange for the previous six months. This report showed a continued downward trend in weighted average interchange. MBIE and the Minister will, in the short term, continue to monitor data to ensure the current trend continues.

			<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • He wants to see an ongoing commitment from banks and schemes to increase the transparency of costs associated with retail payments and continuing to educate merchants. • He wants to see a low cost debit option remain to ensure merchants have a choice about what forms of payment they accept.
European Union Benchmarks Regulation (BMR)	Medium	MBIE	From 1 January 2018 a new EU regulation applies to the use of, contribution to, and administration of indexes used as financial benchmarks in the EU. The New Zealand Financial Markets Association's (NZFMA) BKBM and closing rates are captured by this regulation. New Zealand banks and other financial institutions make extensive use of interest rate and currency derivatives to hedge funding risks on their balance sheets. A significant reduction in EU counterparties ability to enter into these transactions, due to non-recognition of BKBM under the BMR, could significantly increase the costs of hedging and potentially impede domestic banks ability to fund themselves. NZFMA, in consultation with MBIE, FMA and RBNZ, is reviewing the EU regulations with a view to ensuring the continued use of NZFMA's benchmarks and closing rates. The EU regulator has provided third party countries which had benchmarks in place prior to 1 January 2018 with a two-year transitional period. NZFMA, MBIE, FMA and RBNZ have chosen the option of equivalence to comply with the requirements of BMR and continue to administer BKBM for use by EU supervised entities post 1 January 2020.	On 19 February 2019 the Financial Markets (Derivatives Margin and Benchmarking) Reform Amendment Bill was introduced into Parliament. Margining of Derivatives	Medium	MBIE / RBNZ / Treasury	On 13 July 2017 RBNZ and MBIE opened public consultation on foreign margin requirements for derivatives. The consultation paper identified specific impediments in New Zealand insolvency laws and proposed a number of targeted legislative amendments to address them. In August 2017 NZBA submitted on the consultation. In 2018 Cabinet agreed to amend legislation to remove the legal impediments to New Zealand entities complying with margining requirements. The amendments will mean that derivatives counterparties can enforce their security interest over margin immediately and rank ahead of other creditors in the event that the other counterparty defaults. More specifically, the amendments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • will carve out these derivative-related claims from general moratoria on claims that apply in statutory management and voluntary administration; and • will ensure that when these derivatives counterparties enforce their security interest over posted margin, their claim ranks ahead of other potential claims under the Companies Act 1993 and the Personal Property Security Act 1999. 	On 19 February 2019 the Financial Markets (Derivatives Margin and Benchmarking) Reform Amendment Bill was introduced into Parliament.
